THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic,

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1766.

BOSTON, November 3.

Wedneſday laſt the Great and General Court met here, when his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both Houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I Have thought proper to call you together, that you may have an Opportunity to give a poſitive Anſwer to what I recommended to you, by Order of his Majeſty, laſt Seſſion; as it will be expected of me that it be reported to his Majeſty before the opening of the Buſineſs of the next Year: And I heartily wiſh that it may be ſuch as will anſwer the Expectations and Deſires of your Friends in Great-Britain. For my Part, I ſhall upon this Occaſion, as upon all others, make the beſt Uſe of the Means you ſhall put in my Hands to promote the Honour and Reputation of the Province.

As you are called together for this Buſineſs only, when it is finiſhed, I ſhall have no Objection to your returning Home, until the uſual Time of opening the Winter Seſſion.

FRANCIS BERNARD.

NOVEMBER 10.

The following is an ANSWER of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives to the SPEECH of his Excellency the Governor, made at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

YOUR Speech to both Houſes at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion, has been repeatedly under the moſt deliberate Conſideration of the Houſe of Repreſentatives.

It was, indeed Sir, with great Reluctance, that the Houſe found themſelves under the Neceſſity of having Recourſe to your former Speech and Meſſage upon this Occaſion; but as you are pleaſed to refer us to them without ſaying any Thing to qualify them, the Houſe cannot help obſerving, that the Manner in which your Excellency has repeatedly propoſed a Compenſation to the Sufferers, has been Derogatory to the Honour of the Houſe and in Breach of the Priviledges thereof: That the Terms you have made uſe of, have been eſſentially different from thoſe dictated to you, by his Majeſty's expreſs Command, ſignified in a Letter from his Secretary of State: That they tended to weaken the inherent uncontroulable Right of the People, to Diſpoſe of their own Money to ſuch Purpoſes as they ſhall judge Expedient, and no other: And that under theſe Apprehenſions, it is not improbable, ſome of the Towns may have framed their Inſtructions to their Repreſentatives, againſt a Compenſation out of the public Treaſury.

The Houſe, however, with the moſt dutiful and profound Reſpect, have attended to his Majeſty's moſt gracious and mild Recommendation; and Obſerve, that it is his pious and benevolent Intention, that not only a Compenſation ſhould be made to the Sufferers in the late Times, but alſo that a Veil be drawn over every diſgraceful Scene, and to forgive and even to forget the undutiful Behaviour of any of his Subjects in thoſe unhappy Times.

Confirmed in the Opinion, that an Indemnification of the Offenders is of equal Importance and Neceſſity with the making Compenſation to the Sufferers, and being ever ready with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, to unite their Endeavours in promoting the wiſe and gracious Purpoſes of their rightful Sovereign; in Conformity to the Spirit of Mr. Secretary Conway's Letter to the Houſe, have fram'd a Bill, entitled, An Act for granting Compenſation to the Sufferers, and of free and general Pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion to the Offenders in the late Times.

This Bill they have ordered to be publiſhed for the Conſideration of the ſeveral Towns, and humbly pray your Excellency would pleaſe to give them a Receſs for that Purpoſe.

NOVEMBER 17.

On Thurſday laſt his Excellency was pleaſed to adjourn the Great and General Court to Wedneſday the 3d Day of December next; having firſt made the following Reply to the Anſwer to his Speech at the opening of the Seſſion, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

IN the Letter of the Earl of Shelburne which I laid before you, you have a ſecond Teſtimony from another of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, of the Tenderneſs and Affection towards the People under my Government, with which I have conducted myſelf during the late Diſputes, and therefore ſhall make no other Anſwer to the ungenerous Inſinuations in your Meſſage of Yeſterday, than by referring to your own Journals, from whence it will evidently appear, that it is from among yourſelves, and not from me, that the Difficulties which have prevented your making a Compenſation to the Sufferers, have aroſe.

I am very ſorry that you have not already complied with what has been recommended to you; but it is ſome Satisfaction to me, that you have laid a Foundation for compleating this Buſineſs, which I hope will not fail of Succeſs. The Importance of the Affair, and the haſty Approach of the new Year, will not allow the Loſs of a Day which can be ſaved; and therefore I ſhall make the Receſs, which you deſire, as ſhort as poſſible. And that you may do the Buſineſs with as much Credit to yourſelves as may be, I ſhall continue the Seſſion until you can come to a final Determination.

Council-Chamber,
Nov. 13, 1766. } FRA. BERNARD.

In Council, November 13, 1766.

ON a Motion made to his Excellency in Council, and the unanimous Deſire of the Council thereupon, That he would permit the Earl of Shelburne's Letter of the 13th of September laſt, (a Copy of which had been communicated to the Board) to be printed.

The Governor gave Orders for printing the ſame accordingly.

The ſaid LETTER is as follows, viz.

WHITEHALL, September 13, 1766.

SIR,

I Have had the Honour to lay before the King, your Letters of the 29th of June, and 19th of July laſt, together with the Incloſures therein contained: And I have received his Majeſty's Commands to communicate them to ſuch of his Servants, as he thinks proper uſually to Conſult upon his moſt important Affairs, as ſoon as the Seaſon of the Year will conveniently admit of their meeting, for this, and other Purpoſes.-----In the mean Time, his Majeſty is extremely ſorry, to obſerve any Degree of ill Temper remaining in his Colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, or, that Points ſhould be ſo improperly agitated, as to tend to the revival of Diſputes, which every Friend to America, muſt wiſh to be forgotten. -----They have ſeen the Parliament of Great-Britain give due Attention to all well-founded Complaints of the Provinces, notwithſtanding they appeared to them, in ſome Parts, not ſo properly urged; and though the Legiſlature will, certainly, on all juſt Occaſion, exerciſe and enforce its Legiſlative Power, over the Colonies, yet, it cannot be doubted, but it will exert it with a due Regard to the Nature of their Connection with the Mother Country.

Upon this Occaſion it is proper to Obſerve, in general, that the Eaſe and Honour of his Majeſty's Government in America, will greatly depend on the Temper and Wiſdom of thoſe who are entruſted with the Adminiſtration there; and that they ought to be Perſons diſdaining narrow Views, private Combination and partial Attachments.-----It is with great Pleaſure, Sir, that I have obſerved the Manner in which you have conducted yourſelf, during the Diſputes of the laſt Year, which I cannot do, without highly approving your Attention and Watchfulneſs, on the one Hand, to ſupport the Authority of Government, and on the other, the Tenderneſs and Affection which appeared in all your Letters, towards the People under your Government.----A temperate Conduct founded on the true Baſis of public Good, avoiding all unneceſſary reſerve, where nothing Arbitrary is thought of, and nothing unreaſonable is required, muſt carry Conviction to the Hearts of the deluded, conciliate the Minds of all, and inſure the Confidence of his Majeſty's loyal and loving Subjects of America.

Upon theſe Conſiderations I am perſuaded, that the Aſſembly will, immediately upon their Meeting, fall upon Meaſures to terminate all local Difficulties, which appear by your Accounts to have hitherto prevented that Compliance, which will be expected by Parliament with the Recommendation you have been required to make in Conſequence of the Reſolutions of both Houſes.-----It is impoſſible to conceive, that they will ſuffer any private Conſiderations to interfere with their Deſire of ſhewing a proper Senſe of that paternal Regard which they have experienced from his Majeſty, and of that Attention which the Parliament has given to their Complaints, which can never be done with more Propriety, than by granting with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, a juſt Compenſation to thoſe who have ſuffered by the late Diſorders.

I am, with great Truth and Regard,
Sir, Your moſt obedient,
humble Servant,
SHELBURNE.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have received Information, that in the Night between Friday and Saturday the 12th and 13th Inſtant, ſome wicked and evil diſpoſed Perſon or Perſons did feloniouſly Attempt to ſet fire to the Dwelling-Houſe of Mrs. Anne Matthews, in Church-Street, by wilfully and maliciouſly ſetting fire to the Gate-Poſt adjoining to the ſame: In order therefore to diſcover the Perpetrators of the ſaid attrocious Offence, and that they may be brought to condign Puniſhment, I HAVE thought fit to iſſue this my Proclamation, hereby offering a Reward of THREE HUNDRED & FIFTY POUNDS, current Money, to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons who ſet fire to the ſame, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, if he, ſhe or they are WHITE People; and the Sum of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS, Currency, if he, ſhe, or they are Negroes; together with His MAJESTY's moſt gracious PARDON, to any of the Accomplices in the ſaid Crime, excepting the Perſon or Perſons who actually did ſet fire to the ſame.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Charles-Town, the ſixteenth Day of December, Anno Domini, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-ſix, and in the ſeventh Year of his Majeſty's Reign. C. G. MONTAGU.

By his Excellency's Command,

GOD SAVE THE KING.

On Tueſday the 30th Inſtant, December, will be ſold at publick Vendue, at the Houſe of the late John Cooper, deceaſed, at Stono, if a fair Day, if not the next fair Day after;

ALL the eſtate and effects of the ſaid deceaſed, conſiſting of ten valuable Slaves; one of whom is a good cooper, is young, and bears a good character; ſeveral good draught and ſaddle horſes; a parcel of good furniture, among which are a quantity of good feather beds and bedding, &c. alſo the wearing apparel of the deceaſed.—For all ſums under fifty pounds, the ready money muſt be paid; and all above that ſum, credit will be given to the firſt of March, the purchaſer giving ſecurity, and paying intereſt from the date; but till the terms are complied with, the property not to be altered.—The ſale will begin at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

All perſons now indebted to the eſtate, are requeſted to make payment, on or before the firſt day of February next, otherwiſe the law will be put in force, without reſpect of perſons; for, as the eſtate's debts muſt be paid, indulgence cannot be expected: And thoſe having any claim againſt the eſtate, are deſired to make the ſame known to us as ſoon as poſſible.

ATKINS & WESTON, Adminiſtrators.

Charles-Town, December 8, 1766

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, on Monday the 8th of December, 1766, between the hours of one and two in the morning, the eight undermentioned priſoners, feloniouſly broke out of, and eſcaped from the publick goal in Charles-Town, viz.

Edward Gibſon, (a mulatto) a ſhort well ſet man, with ſhort black curly hair, and very fickly.

James Aſhworth, a tall luſty man, of a ſwarthy complexion, and ſhort black hair, both committed by Robert Weaver, Eſq; for robbing Loveleſs and Gibſon's ſtores.

Roger Martin, a young man of about 27 or 28 years of age, of a middling ſtature, well ſet, and wears a cap.

John Lawrence, a tall thin young man, about 26 years of age, ſwarthy complexion, and wears his own lank hair, rather long; both committed by Thomas Bell, Eſq; and others, for horſe ſtealing.

John Tilly, jun. a luſty well ſet middle ſized man, viſſage, and very hairy; committed by Stephen Bull, jun. Eſq; for houſe-robbery.

John Arts, a ſhort thin young man, of a dark complexion, and wears his own black hair; committed by Joſeph Curry, Eſq; for horſe-ſtealing.

Antonio Chriſtian, (a Spaniard) an old thin man, of a yellow complexion, has loſt ſome of his fore teeth, and has for ſome years been well known in this province; committed by Stephen Bull, jun. Eſq; for murder.

Andrew Johnſton, a free Negro, by trade a carpenter, and well known about Charles-Town; detained for debt.

THIS is therefore to certify, to any perſon or perſons that will apprehend and take any of the above-named criminals, ſo that they may be brought back to the aforeſaid publick goal of Charles-Town, that they ſhall, immediately on the delivery of any or all of them, to the Provoſt-Marſhal, or keeper of the ſaid goal, receive FIFTY POUNDS currency for each, and every ſuch criminal ſo re-taken and delivered, from ROGER PINCKNEY, Provoſt-Marſhal.

Charles-Town, December 8, 1766.

THERE being a Neceſſity for making a ſpeedy Cloſe of all the Affairs of BRAILSFORD & CHAPMAN, as the former intends for England early the enſuing Spring, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all Perſons indebted to that Partnerſhip, or to SAMUEL BRAILSFORD ſingly, that it is expected they will punctually diſcharge their ſeveral Contracts by the Tenth Day of February next at fartheſt, as after that Time no further Indulgence can be allowed; and they hope all concerned will pay proper Regard hereto, being determined to put in Suit what ſhall then remain due, without Diſtinction. BRAILSFORD & CHAPMAN.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

JAMES KIRKWOOD, of the Province aforeſaid, who is in the Cuſtody of the Provoſt-Marſhal, upon Meſne Proceſs, at the Suit of Andrew Taylor and Donald Bruce, ſurviving Executors of the Laſt Will and Teſtament of Robert Fairwither, having petitioned their Honours the Chief Juſtice, and his Aſſociates, Juſtices of the Court of Common Pleas, that he may be admitted to the Benefit of the Act made for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors. IT IS ORDERED, That the ſaid Andrew Taylor and Donald Bruce, and all others, to whom the ſaid Petitioner is any wiſe indebted, be, and they are hereby ſummoned and have Notice, to appear at the uſual Place of Judicature, at the firſt Sitting of the Court of Common Pleas, or General Seſſions, which ſhall happen three Months after the Publication hereof, to ſhew Cauſe, if any they can, why the ſaid Petitioner ſhould not have the Prayer of his Petition granted.

D. CAMPBELL, C. C. P.

Pleas-Office, October 20, 1766.

A Quantity of BRICKS,

TO be be ſold and delivered at my Landing, nine Miles from Town, on Cooper River, in St. Thomas's Pariſh.

JOHN MOORE.

WHEREAS I ALEXANDER CADDELL, Breeches-maker and Glover, in Broad-ſtreet, near the State-houſe, am determined to return to London; and therefore deſire all Perſons to whom I am indebted to come and receive their Caſh; and thoſe indebted to me, to make immediate Payment.—Thoſe who left Skins to be manufactured for Breeches, and others who have left Breeches to clean, are requeſted to call for them in two Months from the Date hereof, otherwiſe they will be ſold. Dec. 22, 1766.

LONDON, September 20.

A Letter from Plymouth, dated September 16.

"A marine soldier was ordered to be shot at Plymouth-dock for desertion yesterday. The marine companies, and the 4th regiment was ordered to attend the execution. About nine in the morning the prisoner was brought out of the barracks, after having received the sacrament; his coffin was carried before his face. About ten he got to the field of execution. About 11 the commanding officer ordered he should march round the troops to admonish them, &c. After which he returned to the place. There were nine men, who were formerly deserters, ordered to shoot him: he kneeled and was bid to pull his cap over his face, which he did, and whilst the officer turned round ('tis supposed to pull a reprieve out of his pocket) the poor man dropt a handkerchief out of his hand, which was understood by the men that were to shoot him as a signal to fire; and indeed three of them did fire through his body, before the officer could turn round to stop them. The horrible confusion of the officer is easier conceived than expressed, who was quite innocent as to the design; but, through some unhappy mistake, the poor man lost his life.

St. CHRISTOPHER's, November 19.

On Saturday morning last, Nicholas Johnson, the murderer and pirate, was publickly racked, pursuant to his sentence, in Saint Eustatius. About nine o'clock in the morning he was conducted out of the fort to the place appointed for his execution, where he was bound fast with cords to an engine resembling a St. Andrew's Cross. The executioner, with a great deal of deliberation, then proceded to execute the law upon the criminal, breaking his right leg with a blow of an iron bar provided for that purpose. He bore the breaking of his legs and arms without a groan; but when his thighs came to be broke he made dreadful out-cries. After all his limbs where thus mangled and shattered, he received twenty-two blows on his stomach before he expired. Some time before his execution he confessed that he had formerly been guilty of two murders; and acknowledged that he and his accomplice, Joseph Andrews, intended to have murdered William Harris the day he escaped out of the boat. Johnson was about thirty-five years of age, five feet six inches high, and a very pleasing chearful countenance; his behaviour after sentence, and at the place of execution, was decent and resigned, which makes us conclude, that if he had lived as well as he died, his life would not have been brought to so ignominious a period.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 30.

ON Friday the 19th Instant, the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to Tuesday the 19th Day of January [illegible]. During their sitting they passed, An Ordinance, [illegible] BENJAMIN SIMONS, Esq; Commissary-General [illegible] Province; which was assented to by his Excellency the Governor on the 11th Instant:---They have voted £. 100 Sterling, at the Disposal of his Excellency, towards encouraging Mr. Hammerer's Scheme for civilizing and educating the Cherokee Indians:---They have also voted for the Back Barracks to be repaired, the Arsenal to be roughcast, and the Pillars of the Wall to be plaistered, and Capitals put on them:----And they have sent Home a Petition, to be presented to his Majesty, praying for the Repeal of that Act of the British Parliament, which restrains the Emission of Paper Currency in America, and that they may have Leave to issue to the Amount of £. 50,000 Sterling, less than which will not be sufficient as a Medium of Trade.

On Wednesday last, Capt. Ratsey arrived here from Cowes, by whom we learn, That his Excellency William Henry Lyttleton, was appointed Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Portugal;---That JOHN WILKES, Esq; was returned to England, having had his Outlawry taken off;---and that the Disturbances in England, on Account of the Scarcity and Dearness of Corn, still continued.

The London Papers brought by Captain Ratsey, contain nothing of Importance; nor will Time permit our inserting several Paragraphs of little Moment, tho' perhaps amusing, (which shall be in our next) always endeavouring to be punctual to our Day of Publication.

Saturday last being the Festival of ST. JOHN EVANGELIST, the Society of FREE-MASONS, assembled in the Morning, and went in Procession to ST. PHILIP's Church, where an excellent Discourse suitable to the Occasion, was delivered by the Reverend Mr. JOHN TONGE, a Brother; the Members present, being in Number about 100, among whom were the Right Worshipful BENJAMIN SMITH, Esq; Provincial Grand-Master, the Hon. EGERTON LEIGH, Esq; Deputy Grand-Master; and many other Gentlemen of Distinction; and after Service was over, they returned to the LODGE-ROOM at Mr. DILLON's, where an elegant Entertainment was provided, and the Day closed with that general Satisfaction so conspicuous in the Assemblies of that Ancient Fraternity.

On Monday the 22d Instant, the Right Worshipful Grand-Master, was pleased to constitute a new LODGE of MASONS, by the Name of the MARINE-LODGE, to be held at the House of Mr. Benjamin Backhouse; and intended particularly for the Accommodation of Captains of Vessels, &c.---Their Meetings are the second and last Mondays in the Month.

Yesterday Afternoon, a Brig put in here, bound from Falmouth for New-York, but blown off that Coast.

Charles-Town, December 8, 1766.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber, a Negro fellow named JOE, well known in town, and several parts of the country; formerly the property of Messrs. Torrans, Poaug, and Co. and lately of Mr. Thomas Smith, jun. He is of a middling stature, rather short, and well sett, very remarkable for his upper lip being white, and a rogueish look; speaks very good English, and will easily persuade the unweary; he has a coat, waistcoat and breeches of blue Negro cloth, with metal buttons, shoes and stockings; he sometimes wears a brown thickset frock, with gilded buttons, and as he has lately been at sea, may probably wear his sailor's dress: He is supposed to be harboured by a wench at the plantation up the path, belonging to the Hon. Benjamin Smith, Esq; or else in town, particularly upon Trott's point. FIVE POUNDS reward will be given to any one who brings him to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the work-house, and reasonable charges paid; and any one proving the said Negro to be harboured by a white person, shall, on conviction, receive Fifty Pounds; and if by a Negro, Ten Pounds.

JOHN DE LAHOWE.

N. B. All masters of vessels are warned not to receive said Negro on board their vessels, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law; and the notable mark of his white upper-lip above described, can leave no room to any exception.
